It is however noted that the second rule of the association lays down that the funds shall be invested with Govt under the G.O. of 12 Feb 08 Forwarded to Govt for opinion on the above point as to whether any change is necessary in the draft agreement

To obviate the difficulty of Govt having to contract with parties whose legal position they cannot know, such as their capacity to contract, as in the present instance, it was suggested that the Govt should get the bonds executed by the trustees or managers of a regularly constituted fund. no order was passed on that point that file is now in Br III for sanctioning the amended form of bond and notification and this may also be sent there

9 For a document to be binding on an unregistered association or body of persons, it must be executed by all the members thereof, unless they constitute their President or any other Officer or their duly authorized agent in that respect The rules framed by the Lingayet Education Fund Association are silent as to the person or Officer who can represent the association in its dealings with third parties The binding nature of the rules is somewhat doubtful I would, therefore, suggest that -- the association may be requested to register itself under Regulation III of 1904 and to invest any of its Officers with power to transact business with third parties and execute documents on its behalf
